Dear Madam:-

I am sorry to say that Mr. Baker succeeded in getting the bill to pay you the value of the stolen bars through the Senate only, although he tried very hard to get it through the House also. I have no doubt he will be able to get it through the House when Congress meets, again as it is in such a position now that it can be called up on any day the House considers private bills.

I am sure Mr. Baker will use every effort to get it through before the close of the next session.

Very truly yours

R. B. Preston
